

THE HILL

NEWS, P. 4: In shift, Biden answers question on packing the Supreme Court

NEWS, P. 9: Senate will vote on “targeted” coronavirus bill next week

Republicans: High court won't toss ObamaCare

By Peter Sullivan

• Senate Republicans are downplaying the chances that the Supreme Court will strike down ObamaCare as Democrats seek to hammer the GOP on the issue ahead of the elections.

As Supreme Court nominee Amy Coney Barrett testifies this week before the Senate Judiciary Committee, Democrats are drilling in on a Republican-backed lawsuit seeking to strike down the Affordable Care Act (ACA) that the high court will hear one week after Election Day.

If the lawsuit succeeds, roughly 20 million people would lose health
→ SEE OBAMACARE PAGE 12

GREG NASH

Supreme Court nominee Judge Amy Coney Barrett's confirmation fight has brought abortion rights into focus at a time when the high court is poised to review multiple challenges to Roe v. Wade.

2020 ELECTION

Court fight puts focus on abortion

The nomination of Amy Coney Barrett to the Supreme Court has put an enormous focus on abortion weeks before the election; would Barrett and other GOP nominated justices overturn Roe v. Wade?

By Alexander Bolton

• Judge Amy Coney Barrett's confirmation battle has raised the national debate over abortion rights to a level not seen in years.

President Trump's nominee has indicated skepticism of Roe v. Wade at a time when the Supreme Court is poised to review multiple challenges to the landmark case.

The first substantive question Sen. Dianne Feinstein (Calif.), the ranking Democrat on the Judiciary Committee, → SEE ABORTION PAGE 14

Wherever we are, we can change the world together.

Join the CFC to help those in need and Be the Face of Change.

FULL CONTENTS, P.3

WWW.THEHILL.COM